the protection at the State level of the National Minorities Commission?

SHRI L.K. ADVANI: Sir, this supplementary does not directly relate to the Home Ministry. But, I will say that this is not a question but a suggestion for action.

SHRI O. RAJAGOPAL: Sir, I want to know from the hon. Home Minister whether the Government's policy is to recruit people on the basis of religion, whether there are policies under which some people are consciously kept away and whether there is any discriminatory attitude by which some persons are kept away.

SHRI L.K. ADVANI: There is no discrimination against anybody. No favouritism is shown to any community. This is the policy of the Government.

SHRI M.P.A. SAMAD SAMADANI: One major aspect of the main question is yet to be answered by the hon. Minister. The main question has an important part. That is about the recommendation of the National Integration Council.

This recommendation of the National Integration Council cannot be ignored by just stating that we are not for reservation and that we are not for recruitment. The National Integration Council is a very responsible body. It has, in its past record, great deliberations and recommendations regarding the unity of the nation. I think, there are cultural...
